

Jasmina Sermijn

Brussels, Belgium

Vrije Universiteit

Jasmina Sermijn, PhD is clinical psychologist, systemic therapist and trainer in family therapy. Her interest areas focus on postmodern philosophy and the practice of narrative & collaborative practices. In her PhD dissertation she researched the interaction between psychiatric diagnoses and the co-construction of selfhood. Jasmina Sermijn published two books (in Flemish), several articles and presented multiple international workshops. jsermijn@vub.ac.be